

Everyone Sang

Chumbawumba

[Am] [C] [G] [D] [Am] [C] [G] [D]

[Am] Seigfried Sassoon on the [C] Dunbar End ([G] Everyone [D] sang)
 When [Am] strangers became your [C] new best friends ([G] Everyone [D] sang)
 It was [Am] Armistice Day, and [C] peace broke out ([G] Everyone [D] sang)
 [Am] Sometimes a melody is [C] louder than a shout. ([G] Everyone [D] sang)

[C] Somebody struck up a [G] song
 [C] We didn't know the words but [D] still we [G] sang [C] along.

Just our [G] voices, [Am] that's all, [C] Everywhere a concert [D] hall.
 [G]Voices, that's [Am] all [C] Lullaby and [D] call.

[Am] [C] [G] [D] [Am] [C] [G] [D]

[Am] Chucking out time at the [C] bar on the corner ([G] Everyone [D] sang)
 From the [Am] Albion tap room to [C] California ([G] Everyone [D] sang)
 In the [Am] olden days before they [C] put in a jukebox ([G] Everyone [D] sang)
 [Am] "Please to put a penny in the [C] old man's voice box." ([G] Everyone [D] sang)

[C] Somebody struck up a [G] song
 [C] We didn't know the words but [D] still we [G] sang [C] along.

Just our [G] voices, [Am] that's all, [C] Everywhere a concert [D] hall.
 [G]Voices, that's [Am] all [C] Lullaby and [D] call.

[Am] [C] [G] [D] [Am] [C] [G] [D]

(single strums)

[Am] Lost in the middle of a [C] demonstration ([G] Everyone [D] sang)
 [Am] All power to [C] imagination ([G] Everyone [D] sang)

(start again)

Your [Am] song it sounds a [C] whole lot better ([G] Everyone [D] sang)
 When [Am] everyone sings that [C] song together ([G] Everyone [D] sang)

[C] Somebody struck up a [G] song
 [C] We didn't know the words but [D] still we [G] sang [C] along.

Just our [G] voices, [Am] that's all, [C] Everywhere a concert [D] hall.
 [G] Voices, that's [Am] all [C] Lullaby and [D] call.

Just our [G] voices, [Am] that's all, [C] Everywhere a concert [D] hall.
 [G]Voices, that's [Am] all [C] Lullaby and [D] call.
 Just our [G] voices, [Am] that's all [G]