

Fields Of Athenry

Dubliners

[G]By the lonely prison wall, I [C]heard a young girl [G]cal-[D]ling
 [G]Michael they have [C]taken you [D]away
 [G]For you stole Trevelins [C]corn so the [G]young might see the [D]morn
 [D]Now a [D7]prison ship lies [D]waiting in the [G]bay.

Chorus

[G]Low [C]Lie [G]The fields of [Em]Athenry
 [G]Where once we watched the small free birds [D]fly
 [G]Our love was on the [C]wing
 [G]We had dreams and songs to [D]sing
 [D]It's so [D7]lonely round the [Dsus]fields of [G]Athenry.

Verse 2

[G]By the lonely prison wall, I [C]heard a young man [G]cal-[D]ling
 [G]Nothing matters [C]Mary when you're [D]free
 [G]Against the famine and the [C]Crown, I [G]Rebelled they cut me [D]down
 [D]Now [D7]you must raise our [D]child with [G]dignity.

Chorus

Verse 3

[G]By the lonely harbor wall, [C]she watched the last star [G]fal-[D]ling
 [G]As the prison ship [C]sailed out against the [D]sky
 [G]Where she lived to hope and [C]pray for her [G]love in [D]Botany bay
 It's so [D7]lonely round the [D]fields of [G]Athenry.

Chorus X2.
