

New World In The Morning

Roger Whittaker

[G]Everybody talks about a [Em]new world in the morning,
 [Am]new world in the [C]morning, so [G]they sa---[D]ay.
 Well, [G]I myself don't talk about a [Em]new world in the morning,
 [Am]new world in the [C]morning that's [Em]today.

And I can [C]feel a new [D]tomorrow coming [G]on,
 and I [C]don't know why I [D]have to make a [G]so---[D]ng.
 Well, [G]everybody talks about a [Em]new world in the morning,
 [Am]new world in the [C]morning takes too [Em]long.

I [G]met a man who had a dream he'd [Em]had since he was twenty,
 I [Am]met that man when [C]he was [G]eighty[D]---ne.
 He [G]said, too many folks just stand and [Em]wait until the morning, [Am]don't they know [C]tomorrow never [Em]comes.

*And he [C]would feel a [D]new tomorrow [G]coming on,
 and when he [C]smiled his eyes would [D]twinkle up in [G]fu---[D]un.

[G]Everybody talks about a [Em]new world in the morning,
 [Am]new world in the [C]morning takes too [Em]long.
 And I can [C]feel a new to[D]morrow coming [G]on.
 and I [C]don't know why I [D]have to make a [G]so---[D]ng.
 [G]Everybody talks about a [Em]new world in the morning,
 [Am]new world in the [C]morning takes too [Em]long.
