

Beds Are Burning

Midnight Oil

[E] [G] [A] bass riff

[E]Out where the river broke, the bloodwood and the desert oak
Holden wrecks and boiling diesels, steam in forty five degrees

The [E]time has come, to say fair's [D]fair;
to [A]pay the rent, to [E]pay our share
The [E]time has come, a fact's a [D]fact;
it be[A]longs to them, let's [F#]give it back

[E] [G] [A]

[Em]How can we dance when our [C]earth is tur[G]ning?
[Em]How do we sleep while our [C]beds are burning?[D]
[Em]How can we dance when our [C]earth is tur[G]ning?
[Em]How do we sleep while our [C]beds are burning?[D]
The [Em]time has come to [C]say fair's fair, to [G]pay the rent, now to [D]pay our share

bass riff

[E]Four wheels scare the cockatoos, from Kintore East to Yuendumu
The western desert lives and breathes, in forty five degrees

The [E]time has come, to say fair's [D]fair;
to [A]pay the rent, to [E]pay our share
The [E]time has come, a fact's a [D]fact;
it be[A]longs to them, let's give it [E]back
